BIOGRAPHIES

MICHAEL LEVINE-CLARK

Michael Levine-Clark is the Dean of the University of Denver Libraries, where he has worked in various positions since 1999. He has held leadership roles in multiple professional organizations focused on collection development and acquisitions. He is the recipient of the 2015 Harrasowitz Leadership in Library Acquisitions Award for his work on e-books and demand-driven acquisition models. As co-chair of the Colorado Alliance of Research Libraries Shared Collection Development Committee, he guides decisions about collaborative collection building within the consortium. He co-founded the open access journal Collaborative Librarianship, and continues to serve as co-editor. He serves on a variety of publisher and vendor library advisory boards and a range of committees within library professional organizations. He is widely published and has been invited to speak on six continents about trends in academic libraries and scholarly communication.

JOHN "JACK" OCHS

Jack Ochs is Vice President, Strategic Planning & Analysis for the Publications Division of the American Chemical Society. He serves on the COUNTER Executive Committee and chairs the International Association of Scientific, Technical & Medical Publishers (STM) Copyright and Legal Affairs Committee. He also serves on STM's Public Affairs Committee and is an Ex Officio member of the Executive Board. Prior to joining the ACS, he served in sales, editorial, strategic planning, and management positions with Simon & Schuster, Scholastic, and Prentice-Hall.

JONATHAN GLOVER

Jonathan Glover is Vice President, Digital Product Management in Wiley's Research Business Division. In this role, he is responsible for Wiley Online Library along with author-facing products and applications. Jonathan has been with Wiley for 16 years in a variety of editorial and product management roles, including Wiley's implementation of CHORUS. Prior to his work at Wiley, Jonathan was at Elsevier for 5 years working in editorial and product management.

DAWN MELLEY

Dawn Melley is Senior Director, Publishing Operations, for IEEE, where she leads 115+ professionals in offering a suite of services and tools designed to support researchers and aid them in publishing with IEEE. The Publishing Operations group employs technology solutions, with a focus on continuous process improvement and the ability to react quickly to the changing needs of both the business and researchers, to support creative, editorial, production, and indexing services, delivery of IEEE's intellectual property in various formats, and management of the electronic content archive. As a member of the IEEE Publications senior management team, she plays a key role in developing strategic priorities for the organization and turning those priorities into successfully implemented operational initiatives. In addition to editorial management responsibilities, her publishing career also includes experience in managing data conversion and electronic product development, developing and directing quality assurance programs and user training, and overseeing database development and the implementation of XML-based editing systems.

DIANE SULLENBERGER

Diane M. Sullenberger is Executive Editor of the Proceedings of the National Academy of Sciences (PNAS) and is responsible for PNAS publishing activities. Previously, Diane was Director of Publications for the Society for Neuroscience, where she oversaw publishing of The Journal of Neuroscience. She is a past president of the Council of Science Editors. For more than 25 years, Diane has held a leadership role in society and research foundation publishing. She is active with the National Academy of Sciences and other STM organizations in establishing and maintaining best practices in scholarly communication, with particular interest in creating sustainable solutions for public access.
