Voting Rights

Each Publisher Member and Each Affiliate Member has one vote that may be voted in person by its "Member Delegate" or by a proxy signed by its Member Delegate. The default Member Delegate is the person listed as the Business Contact in the Membership Agreement, unless the organization (via its Member Delegate or Chief Executive Officer) indicates otherwise.

The Corporate Secretary will appoint 2 members of the current board or executive staff to authenticate and count the vote. All members will receive notification of the election results by email shortly after the February 3rd election.

Instructions for Voting by Proxy

Even if you plan to attend the meeting in person, we ask that you grant a directed proxy to ensure that we have a quorum. The proxy holders are: Fred Dylla and Howard Ratner.

Please sign, date, and return the proxy, even if you are planning to attend the Annual Meeting in person. This will not prevent you from voting in person, since your vote at the Annual Meeting would supersede your proxy vote.

Signed proxies can be scanned and emailed to Susan Spilka at sspilka@chorusaccess.org, or mailed to CHORUS, 72 Dreyer Avenue, Staten Island, NY 10314, USA.

Signed proxies must be received by mail no later than Friday, January 29, by 5 PM EST or by email by Tuesday, February 2, 2016, by 12 midnight EST.

It is very important to return the proxy to ensure that there is a quorum for the meeting.
