

David Sampson Pro-Vice-Chancellor, Research and Innovation

- Dual roles as researcher and leader/manager:
- Research practitioner in optics and photonics in biology and medicine
- Professional society involvement: SPIE (Chair, Publications), IEEE, Optica, Editorial Boards of journals and The Conversation, UK
- Responsible for Surrey's R&I performance and conduct of c1,200 researchers producing c2,500 outputs per year

Research integrity at the University of Surrey

- » Integrity is a fundamental value of the organisation
- » External compliance – funders/government
  - UK Concordat to Support Research Integrity – required to publish an Annual Statement
  - UK Concordat to Support Open Research Data
  - UK Concordat to Support Career Development of Researchers
  - UK Reproducibility Network Founding Member
- » Our Structures: Research Integrity and Governance Committee, Research Integrity and Governance Office, Data Protection Officer, Information Security Officer, Open Research team, Academic Lead for Research Culture and Integrity
- » Our Policies: Ethics in Teaching and Research, Open Access to Research Outputs, Good Research Practice, Misconduct in Research
- » Our Training: new staff induction, postgraduate researcher upskilling, mentorship on the job