Who is CHORUS?

CHORUS (Clearinghouse for the Open Research of the United States) is a not-for-profit public-private partnership to increase public access to peer-reviewed publications that report on federally funded research. CHORUS builds on publishers’ existing infrastructure to enhance public access to research literature, avoiding duplication of effort, minimizing cost to the government and ensuring the continued availability of the research literature. CHORUS utilizes current and developing tools, resources and protocols for discoverability, search, archiving and preservation (such as CrossRef, FundRef and ORCID), ensuring continued innovation in the delivery of scholarly communication.
